AWARD CRITERIA

The St John Save a Life Award may be awarded to a person who contributes, through application of first aid skills (e.g. resuscitation, use of a defibrillator, stopping severe bleeding) to saving the life of another person. Whilst calling an ambulance or seeking other medical assistance can contribute to saving the life, these are not regarded as first aid skills for the purpose of this award.

NOMINATION STATEMENT

This nomination statement will be used to ascertain whether the recommended recipient has met the criteria for the St John Save a Life Award. The statement must:

- Address the award Criteria on page 1;
- Be limited to 500 words; and
- Use examples where appropriate.
